Gentlemen: Attention Mr. J. C. Knox, Feature Editor

I am sending you the only available photograph of myself that I have. I wish, if you mention my name, to state Curator, American Numismatic Society, New York City. The Society might as well get what credit they can.

I am herewith sending a rough draft of my talk which may cover some points that did not appear in the Hartford paper. This I would like back sometime.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Mr. Howland Wood,
Curator,
The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway and 156th Street,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Wood:

I am sending back, herewith, the rough draft of the talk you gave at Hartford, and also a few copies of the story we carried about the evolution of the American Eagle, and your photograph.

Unfortunately, directions to the artist who handled your pictures were misunderstood, and a few of the drawings were inked over. But since the artist followed your original lines in detail, without alteration, I trust that you will find the drawings on the whole in good condition.

Thank you, again, for your co-operation.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Knox

Feature Editor, Eastern Division.

Mr. F.E. Duffield,
The Numismatist,
4215 Fern Hill Avenue,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Mr. Duffield:

Herewith, I am returning the set of drawings of the American Eagle which you very kindly loaned us. I am also sending a copy of the story we used, and the pictures that went with the story.

Unfortunately, the artist who was given the pictures misunderstood directions that he was to copy the drawings selected for use, and inked them over. Since he followed Mr. Wood's original lines in detail, I trust that these may not be considered to be damaged.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Knapp

Gentlemen:

Enclosed are five numismatic photos which you kindly loaned me early in August for use in illustrating a news story. Their return was delayed until the story went out. A copy of it is attached, with credit to the society for the pictures used. Thank you for the photos.

Sincerely yours,
